

Editor with 16 year's experience cutting Documentaries and Factual for the BBC, ITV, Discovery, CH4 and many others. I have a reputation for being an intuitive storyteller who is enjoyable and stimulating to work with. I love collaborating with directors and producers to wring emotion and interest out of material. One strength of mine is structure and pacing – knowing what's important and how people will absorb it. I'm particularly good at using music to set the tone, and I especially like to inject humour where appropriate.
