

I have 17 years of experience cutting Documentaries and Factual for the BBC, ITV, Discovery, CH4 and many others. I've a reputation for being an intuitive storyteller who is enjoyable and stimulating to work with. I love collaborating with directors and producers to wring emotion and significance out of material. A strength is structure and pacing – knowing what's important and how people will absorb it. I'm particularly good at using music to set the tone, and I like to inject humour where appropriate.
